The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

LONDON, Auguſt 20.

M. Keyſerling, the Ruſſian Miniſter at Dreſden received an Eſtafette from Count Munich, acquainting him, that he had croſs'd the Dnieſter with the Forces under his Command. The Ruſſian Army conſiſts of 60000 Men, whereof 47000 are regular Troops, the reſt Coſſacks. In their Train of Artillery they have 62 Cannon, 11 Mortars, 16 Haubitzers, 150 Field Pieces, 392 ſmall Mortars called Cohornes; and 3000 Men are employ'd apart to attend and ſerve this Artillery.

Auguſt 22. They write from Vienna, that on the 12th Inſt. N. S. ſome Barks were ſent from thence for Hungary, laden with Stores of ſeveral Kinds for the Army, and particularly for the Service of the Artillery. A Liſt that has been made publick there of the Loſs of the Imperialiſts in the Action at Crotzka, make it to be 5715 killed, and 4560 wounded; in all 10275. And that the Turks had 10000 Men killed or wounded, among the killed were four of the principal Baſhaws.

Auguſt 25. Extract of a Letter from Madrid, dated Auguſt 8. N S.

The Illneſs of the Infantas Maria Thereſa, and Maria Antonietta leſſens our Joy at the ſafe Arrival of the Aſſogues Ships in the Port of St. Andero on the Coaſt of Gallicia. The Court has ſent Orders to unload thoſe Ships with all poſſible Diligence. Great Encomiums are made on the Conduct of Admiral Pizarro who brought home thoſe Veſſels. Since our receiving the King of Great Britain's Order for making Repriſals on the Spaniſh Ships, ſeveral Councils have been held at the Caſtle of St. Ildefonſo; that Order has been attentively examin'd, the Court has found it to be couch'd in very ſtrong Terms, and that the Permiſſion granted is of a very large Extent; upon which a Reſolution has been taken to grant the like Letters of Marque and Reprizals to the Subjects of this Kingdom. The Camp form'd near Ferrol has been lately encreas'd to the Number of 20000 Men. They write from the Groyne, that they are fixing the Chain which is to ſhut up the Entrance of that Port. Five of the King's Ships are ſailed from Carthagena to Cadiz in order to join the Squadron commanded by the Count de Clavijo. Admiral Haddock, having ſent him his Compliments about three Weeks ago, by the Captain of a French Ship, the Count not being willing to be behind hand with him in Politeneſs, ſent him Word by the Captain of an Engliſh Man of War, who lately came to Cadiz to demand Proviſions, 'That he was ſorry he had not been able 'to ſatisfy the Admiral's Impatience; that he hoped he ſhould 'ſoon have an Opportunity to do it, and that in the mean time, 'the Engliſh Ships would do well not to come too near the Bay 'of Cadiz.' Mr. Keene has received a Letter from Admiral Haddock, concerning the viſiting of the French Ship whoſe Papers he lately took, in which he tells him, that that Veſſel expos'd herſelf to be viſited more than any other, becauſe being French, ſhe bore Spaniſh Colours.

They write from Cadiz that Admiral Haddock has ſent two Ships to reconnoitre the Movements of the Spaniards in the Neighbourhood of Gibraltar.

Letters from Hamburg ſay, that an Engliſh 20 Gun Ship is arrived there, in order to demand all the Britiſh Sailors in that City, and bring them back to England. Thoſe Letters add, that the French Squadron, commanded by the Marquis de Antin, had put into Carelſcroon.

Aug. 28. Laſt Sunday being the Birth Day of the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole, Knight of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, being born Auguſt 26, 1674, a grand Entertainment was given to a great Number of Perſons of the firſt Rank, at his Houſe at Chelſea.

Our Letters from Peterſburg bring the following Account of the Action that happen'd the 2d of laſt Month, N. S. between Part of the Ruſſian Army commanded by Count Munich, and a Body of Turks and Tartars.

"The Turks and Tartars having aſſembled in a Wood at ſent to the Camp, ruſhed out all on a ſudden, and attack'd e Foragers they found on that Side; the Officer who comanded the Troops appointed to cover the Foragers, poſted imſelf behind the Waggons he had with him, and by the elp of ſeveral Field-Pieces planted on a Hill, ſuſtained the harge of the Infidels, until the Piquet of the Army puſhed up his Relief: The Velt Marſhal Count Munich likewiſe haſtenthither at the Head of the Regiment of Horſe-Guards, ordring the Generals Biron, Repnin, and Lowendahl, to follow th a few Battalions, and a Detachment of Grenadiers. The emies kept their Ground for ſome time after the Arrival of oſe Troops, but they were at laſt forced to abandon the Field Battle, and fly into the Wood. As it was late, Count Much did not judge it proper to purſue them. We had 39 Men illed in the Action, and 112 wounded; but the Enemy's Loſs muſt be much greater, on Account of the conſtant Fire made upon them by our Artillery and ſmall Arms; one of their Baſhaws was kill'd on the Spot, and in the Beginning of the Engagement we took one of the Murſes of the Budziack Tartars, who has inform'd us, that the Body of Infidels we engag'd with, conſiſted of 6000 Turks, and between 12 and 13000 Tartars. A Thouſand Coſſacks, Calmucks, and Huſſars, who were ſent out to make Inroads into Wallachia, return'd to the Camp a few Days after with 1500 Oxen and 4000 Horſes."

They write from Peterſburg, that the Velt-Marſhal Count Munich had ſent Advice to Court of his paſſing the Neiſter; adding, that as the taking of Choczim could be of no Service to him, he left it on the right Hand, and took his Rout toward Tranſilvania.

August 30. Letter from Belgrade dated August 15.

"The Enemy continue firing from their Batteries; and tho' they have not yet opened Trenches, make Preparations of Scaling-Ladders, of Sacks fill'd with Wool, and Bags with Sand, as if they design'd to make an Assault. An Armenian who has stolen hither from the Enemy's Camp, reports, that according to the common Rumour there, their Army consists of 100,000 Men, their Artillery of 100 Pieces small Cannon, 22 Demy Culverines, 30 large Mortars, and several Haubitzes; that our Artillery has done great Damage to their Batteries, and render'd useless five of their Cannon, and as many of their Mortars; that Bashaw Ali was expected at the Camp with a Reinforcement of several thousand Men from Bosnia, after whose Arrival it was talk'd the first Assault would be made.

Sept. 5. The Reverend Mr. Whitefield's Preaching is become so very offensive to the Clergy of this Kingdom, that 'tis said one of my Lords the Bishops a few Days since, went to the King to desire his Majesty to silence him: Upon which his Majesty enquired whether he preach'd Treason, Sedition, &c. but none of these Things being alledg'd against him, his Majesty seem'd at a Loss how to satisfy the Bishop; which a Noble Duke present observing, humbly proposed, that in order to prevent Mr. Whitefield's preaching for the future, his Majesty would be graciously pleased to make him a Bishop.

Sept. 6. We hear that the Liverymen of this City are determin'd, at their next Choice of a Mayor, to reassume their antient Method of Election, and not suffer an Office which is of the utmost Consequence to them, to go by Rotation, whereof they present to the Court of Aldermen, two of their Brethren (out of which they are to chuse one) who are Persons on whom the Citizens may depend, and who will tread the Steps of those worthy Magistrates who have so lately distinguish'd themselves by opposing Excise Schemes, Conventions, &c. &c. &c. By this Choice (which is no Party Cause) the Citizens will shew their Resentment to a Person who (for Reasons best known to himself) voted for the Convention, which tended so manifestly to the Ruin of our Trade and Commerce, and was contrary to the Opinion of all the Merchants and Traders of Great Britain.

Yesterday it was confidently asserted, that an Express was arrived at the French Ambassador's, with an Account that the Turks having made two vigorous Assaults on Belgrade, in which they were repulsed, with the Loss of a great Number of Janisaries, and other choice Troops, and that they had thought proper to raise the Siege; and the rather, because they could not prevent the Communication between the German Army and the Town.

There are Letters in Town which confirm the above, with this Addition, that the Turks lost between 20 and 30000 Men.

BRISTOL, Aug. 11. To shew our Countrymen that the Injuries and Insults of the haughty Spaniards are not to be passed over with Impunity, the injur'd Merchants of this City are now fitting up for Privateers, the Hanover and Eagle, two of the South Sea Campany's late Whale Boats, and two of the largest Vessels belonging to this Port; also the Westmoreland, and the Barclay, Capt. Stockdon, which last is compleated, and only waits for the Letter of Marque.

DUBLIN, Sept. 11.

Extract of a Letter from a General Officer in the Imperial Army, to the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Mountgarret.

"Among all those brave Men who lost their Lives at the Battle of Krotzka, none is so much lamented by us all as Mr. Anthony Barnwell, the Lord Trimblestown's youngest Son: He came into Germany two Years ago (then a Youth of about 16 Years of Age) in a short Time after his Arrival he obtained a Cornecy in General Hamilton's Regiment of Cuirassiers, where his good Sense, Humility, Good-nature, and truly honest worthy Principles, gained him the Love and Esteem of all who had the least Acquaintance with him. We have had scarce an Action of any Note with the Turks, since his Arrival, that he was not in, and always acquitted himself with an uncommon Resolution: The Day before the Battle of Krotzka he was made a Lieutenant; the next fatal Day the Regiment in which he had his Commission, was one of the first that charged the Enemy; at the very first Onset his Captain and Cornet were killed, when he took up the Standard, tore off the Flag, ty'd it round his Waist, and commanded the Troop; he led it twice to the Charge, and was as often repulsed; the third Time he turned himself to his Men, and said, Come on my brave Fellows, we shall certainly now do the Work; follow me. He then set Spurs to his Horse, and pierced into the thickest of the Enemy, where he was surrounded and cut to Pieces, after having defended himself for a considerable Time with amazing Courage, killing and wounding those who assailed him; till at last, quite covered over with Wounds, he fell; and dying left such an Example of true Courage and Bravery, as cannot fail of being admired by all who shall hear of it; but, I doubt, will be imitated by very few.

P. S. Mr. Maguire, Mr. Nugent, and Mr. Nangle, Gentlemen of Ireland, who behav'd themselves with great Bravery, were likewise kill'd in this Battle, with several other Irish Voluntiers.

BOSTON, Novemb. 5.

By a Gentleman who came Passenger in Capt. Le Fevre last Week from Jamaica, we are informed, that the British Men of War stationed in the West-Indies, were cruising off the Havanna, and other Spanish Ports, and that the Sheerness a 20 Gun Ship, lying off of one of their Ports, as a Merchant Man, with French Colours, the Captain of a Spanish Man of War of 80 Guns, who lay there unrigged, sent his second Captain with 21 other Hands in the Barge to bring the supposed trading Ship in, who coming pretty near, perceived their Mistake, and endeavoured to get off; but the Sheerness firing upon them, obliged them to surrender, and they were all carried to Jamaica, and committed Prisoners to one of the Forts.

We are likewise told, that the Drake Sloop had taken a Spanish Sloop bound to Old Spain, worth six or seven Thousand Pounds Sterling, and carried her into Jamaica.

Capt. Le Fevre came out in Company with 34 Sail of other Vessels, some bound for England, and others for several Parts of America, under Convoy of the Sheerness, who saw them all safe through the Windward Passage, and then went to cruise again upon the Spanish Coast.

Capt. Le Fevre was chased for four Hours together, in the Latitude of Bermuda, by a Bilander, supposed to be a Spaniard, who came almost within Gun Shot of him, but by clapping close upon a Wind, he had the good Fortune to wrong the Bilander and escape. And about a Fortnight ago, Capt. Le Fevre took up at Sea a small Boat called a Moses, with 11 Men in it; they belong'd to a Sloop bound from New-York for South-Carolina with Provisions, but by bad Weather the Sloop foundered, and the poor Men were obliged to take to their Boat. They had been in this miserable Condition for three Days, when they were providentially met with by Capt. Le Fevre, who would have brought them into this Port, but meeting with a Brigantine from Ireland bound to Philadelphia, they chose to go on board her, after they had been on board Capt. Le Fevre eight Days.

The said Captain met with an Accident on his Voyage hither, which had like to have proved fatal to him and his Company, viz. One Night, it being very dark, and the Sloop lying to, a Brigantine ran foul of her, and carried away her Bowsprit close to the Stem; and tho' the People on board the Sloop call'd to the Brigt. in the most moving Manner, desiring to be taken on board, supposing the Sloop to be sinking, yet they went clear off, without speaking one Word.

There are only two Privateers gone out of Jamaica, viz. a Sloop and a Brigantine; tho' several others would be fitted out if they

if they could get Hands, who are ſo extream ſcarce, that 'tis ſaid a Sailor may have 20 Guineas, beſides many other Advantages, for the Run Home.

Laſt Friday Capt. Philip Dumareſque in a fine Sloop mounted with 30 Guns, and Men anſwerable, ſail'd upon a Cruiſe againſt the Spaniards.

Newport, Rhode-Iſland, Nov. 9. We are inform'd by Capt. James Jordan, who arrived here laſt Friday from Jamaica, that there was 3 Spaniſh Veſſels taken by one Engliſh Man of War, about the 20th of September laſt, and carried to Port-Royal, conſiſting of 76 Spaniards, which were all committed to Goal as Priſoners.
